Cambridge School is a school that breeds good citizenship: built and run by thinkers, and meant to nurture thinking students who reflect deeply on how they want to fashion a future world, and have the resolve to see their ideas through. Cambridge School believes in character- building and good citizenship. Our motto "We learn to serve" is essential to building the qualities of empathy and community- consciousness.

At Cambridge School, we believe excellence in learning and hard work must go hand-in-hand with integrity and the tenacity to defend it; and that knowledge acquired from education is not merely for the cultivation of our sensibilities or a first step towards elevated employment, but must be used in the service of humanity.
